

23 Some of the things we don't know about life in Early Christianity and wish we did

- How baptism was understood, how and where done (children?)
- What motivated these women to join and take on leadership
- How families negotiated multiple religious allegiances
- How leadership was exercised
- How they negotiated between expectations of public vs. private life