“Don’t blame me. The king, or city council, or the magistrate told me what to say.”

- to be a herald, to officiate as a herald;
- to proclaim after the manner of a herald always with the suggestion of formality, gravity and an authority which must be listened to and obeyed;
- to publish, proclaim openly: something which has been done;
- used of the public proclamation of the gospel and matters pertaining to it, made by John the Baptist, by Jesus, by the apostles and other Christian teachers

New American Standard Version
