To Whom It May Concern:

Student Name has completed ministry training at Christian Leaders Institute, has submitted one local recommendation, and has received clergy status as a Licensed Ministry Officiant through the ministry of Christian Leaders Alliance.

The Christian Leaders Alliance is a ministry of Christian Leaders Ministries, a Religious 501(c)(3) organization that operates under the business name Christian Leaders Institute. As a Minister Credentialing Religious Society, Christian Leaders Alliance grants clergy credentials to individuals who agree to our Christian statement of faith, complete appropriate ministry training, keep their clergy (minister) profile up to date, and submit proper endorsements confirming their suitability for ministry. Christian Leaders Alliance is overseen by an international commission of licensed and ordained ministers. The clergy directory for the Christian Leaders Alliance can be found at www.christianleadersalliance.org.

This clergy member is deemed in good standing to do ministry appropriate to his/her clergy role.

This clergy member has completed the Licensed Ministry Officiant Clergy program. The program includes the following ministry training courses:

- Level One Endorsement and Clergy Membership into the Christian Leaders Alliance in Good Standing
- Ministry Officiant Skills (1 Credit)
- Multiplying Christian Leaders (1 Credits)

This Licensed Ministry Officiant has received ministry training and has completed all the requirements for licensing within the Christian Leaders Alliance and is granted clergy status as a Licensed Ministry Officiant. This Licensed Ministry Officiant is permitted to:

- Serve in a variety of settings as a licensed clergy member in the ordination program at Christian Leaders Alliance.
- Perform religious duties such as administering the Lord's Supper and performing baptisms.
- Offer prayers and blessings across various settings.
- Visit the sick in hospitals. (Note: Most hospitals require that you have a Christian Leaders Alliance Clergy ID in your possession.)
- Serve as a pastor or minister in a house church.
- Serve at churches as a local minister in good standing.

Disclaimer: Since Christian Leaders Alliance works with local signers, mentors and church officials, be aware that if this person leaves the path of a respectable clergy leader and disqualifies themselves for clergy status by their beliefs or actions, Christian Leaders Alliance has put a process in place. No credentialing or process will guarantee competency or character. Always discern anyone by their actions and fruits, including the person this letter of good standing is presented to.

As of the writing of this letter we know of nothing that holds back this person from ministry or clergy status. We do not endorse any clergy specific belief on any specific subject. Christian Leaders Institute has done due diligence in using the best practices in providing training for this credentialed Christian leader.

Sincerely,
